Installations

Quality Installations, Timely, Professional Execution.

More than 50 years of plumbing and heating installation experience in New York City. DeWaters Plumbing & Heating was founded in 1955. During that time the Company has completed hundreds of large, complex installation projects.

Professional Management. From detailed estimates to focused execution we insist on best practices, the latest technology and total professionalism in all areas of the Company. The result is that you can expect a detailed, timely quote, a highly trained team and completion of your complex project on time, on budget with a minimal amount of administration.

Repeat Business and Referrals. People who do business with us once usually become repeat clients. We frequently complete many projects for each customer, and they regularly refer us to others.

Long Serving, Highly Trained Work Force. DeWaters senior personnel have over 250 years cumulative plumbing and heating experience in New York City and its environs. Most of them have worked with us for 20 years or more. Constant training, promoting from within and rewarding productivity means our employee productivity and retention ranks amongst the highest in the industry.

Constant Focus on Quality and Attention to the Details. Details, details, details; the difference between a good contractor and a great contractor. We insist that our entire organization always focuses on the little things and finishing jobs on schedule thereby minimizing call backs.

Strong, Unblemished Bonding and Insurance Record. Because of our superior bonding and insurance record, we have the ability to meet all strict project bonding and insurance requirements. In 50 years we have never had a major insurance claim or bonding issue.

Send us your plans and specifications today for a fast turn around on a detailed quote.
