Repair and Service

Experienced Professionals; 24/7/365

Plumbing repairs can't wait. At 3:00 AM on a Saturday night when you have a plumbing emergency, you need a plumbing contractor with a large, well stocked fleet that is truly available 24/7/365.

Large, Clean Fleet of Well Stocked, GPS Equipped Vans. Each of our vans is stocked with all the materials needed for most repairs. They also have on board GPS tracking systems. A quick call to our dispatcher can tell you exactly where your repair team is and when they'll get there.

Professional, Uniformed, Courteous Technicians. When a service technician shows up at your door he will be not only be technically proficient, but will be polite and courteous, neatly dressed, protect your floors and furniture and present ID and a business card.

More than 50 years of plumbing and heating experience in NYC. DeWaters Plumbing & Heating was founded in 1955. During that time the Company has built a reputation for integrity, reliability and high quality Repair and Service work.

Long Serving, Highly Trained Work Force. Many DeWaters Plumbing & Heating mechanics have worked with us for more than 20 years. Our continuous training and development programs and focused recruiting mean we have the best most responsive workforce in the industry.

Many Long Term Relationships. During our 50 years of continuous operations we have built a substantial and diversified long time client base by being customer focused.

Professionally Managed. We employ best practices, the latest technology and a high degree of professionalism in all areas of the Company.

Call us today if you need a better plumber.
